Please pray for the migration of burdened saints to the six designated European cities

1. Barcelona (Spanish/Catalan-speaking) – recognized as a global city for its cultural, financial, commercial, and historic importance located on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, is the second most populous city in Spain and the fifth most populous metropolitan area of the European Union. About 30 saints meet regularly in the church in Barcelona, with about 50 saints in the greater Barcelona area.
2. Brussels (French-speaking) – the capital of Belgium, but at the same time de facto capital of the European Union and the European headquarters of several major international agencies. There is a church in Brussels with 55 saints. Because the antichrist will use Europe at the end of this age, it is crucial that the Lord have a strong testimony in this city.
3. Dublin (English-speaking) – the capital and largest city in Ireland. Dublin is the city in which the Brethren began to meet, and Brother Nee considered the Brethren to be a fulfillment of the church in Philadelphia. As Europe enters a "post-Brexit" stage, Ireland is the most significant country in the European Union with English as its primary language. This offers English-speaking immigrants an ideal landing spot for entry into the church life in Europe. 40 saints are currently meeting.
4. Lisbon (Portuguese-speaking) – the capital of Portugal, the westernmost country in Europe. It stands out in history for being the port through which the Portuguese expeditions of the Age of Discoveries departed. Today it is one of the great European cultural centers. There is a burden that a church will be established there shortly. There are currently 14 saints meeting in Lisbon.
5. Rome (Italian-speaking) – the capital of Italy. Brother Lee said, “If there could be a church in Rome with a hundred fifty people who are shining, filled with Christ, and immersed in Christ, the Lord would be able to boast to Satan” (The Kernel of the Bible, p. 192). Rome was the capital of the Roman Empire, where the apostle Paul was martyred and where the enclave of Vatican City is located, the destruction of which is prophesied in the book of Revelation (Rev. 17:16-18). The church in Rome currently has 25 saints. Italian is the last of the major Western European languages that does not yet have the New Testament Recovery Version. Pray that the Lord will make the necessary arrangements for its soon translation.
6. Zurich (German-speaking) – the largest city in Switzerland. It has a wide variety of cultural activities. It was the first Swiss canton to adopt the Protestant Reformation under the direction of the theologian Ulrich Zwingli. The movement of the Anabaptists (part of the so-called Radical Reformation) originated in this city. There is a burden for a church to be established soon in Zurich. Today 25 saints meet in this city.
